What Do Parents and Families Say about P2P?

- “I have used Parent to Parent over the past 13 years; it has helped in many areas for my daughter.”
- “P2P was the first organization I reached out to when we moved here for help to assist me with my son and to get him where he needs to be. I will forever be grateful for that.”
- “I think it is very useful to have a free service like P2P to support families that have questions about their special children.”
- “Just being able to talk to someone else and realize that they have gone through what you are currently going through is so relieving.”
- “The information has helped me greatly with identifying resources to help with my son’s high school transition and improving my IEP experience.”
- “I had specific questions and they were answered giving me a complete understanding. P2PGA is an imperative program for parents and our children!”
- “The best thing you did was to connect me with my Supporting Parent. She has been super helpful!”
- “The coordinator that sent me information was very knowledgeable and it was nice to talk to another mom in my same language.”
- “I really appreciated the follow ups to make sure that I was doing okay after each conversation. I felt that my issue was important, and that it would be addressed to the point that I was satisfied. Thank you for the support!”
