

LITERACY SCREENING

Parent to Parent Literacy Training Series

Purpose:

- Screening is a way to identify students who may not meet grade level learning goals.
- Screening provides information to help struggling readers or those who may struggle in the future.

Parents can help by:

- Staying informed.
- Communicating with teachers.
- Encouraging your child.

Additional resources:

- National Center for Improving Literacy
- International Dyslexia Association