

Parent to Parent of Georgia's Employment Opportunity
Applications are being accepted through 4:00 pm ET on July 31, 2026!

Are you a parent or family member of a child with a disability or special healthcare need? Are you looking for part-time work in a casual working environment, where you can help families to access support and resources while expanding your own knowledge? If you live in the Clarkston area of DeKalb County, this might be a great job for you!

Parent to Parent of Georgia, a nonprofit organization, provides services to families across Georgia who are impacted by disabilities or special healthcare needs. Our vision is to be the source of choice for support, information, education, and leadership development for Georgians with disabilities or special health care needs, ages birth to 26, and their families. Our mission is to support Georgia families and individuals from birth to age 26 impacted by disabilities or special health care needs.

The primary responsibilities of the Parent Partner include providing one-on-one assistance and guidance on educational and health-related issues to families of children with disabilities and/or special healthcare needs and to work closely with the staff at Inspiritus and other refugee and immigrant-serving agencies in the Atlanta area.

Minimum Qualifications:

- Experience supporting families of children with special health care needs.
- Parent or family member of a child with a disability or special health care need.
- Good written and oral communication skills (preference given to candidates fluent in one or more languages in addition to English).
- Basic computer skills.

Preferred Qualifications:

- 2-4 year degree.
- Parent whose child has received services from Babies Can't Wait (BCW) or Children's Medical Services (CMS).
- Parent who lives in the Clarkston, Georgia area.
- Parent who is a member of an immigrant or refugee community.

This is a part-time position, 20 hours a week, 12 months a year. This is a hybrid position, requiring two days per week in our Atlanta office or other clinic-based location. Work schedule will require flexible but consistent daytime hours. Pay is $17 per hour.
